

TELLING THE NZ FARMLAND BIODIVERSITY STORY: Prioritisation workshop for what goes into a tool

Developing an online biodiversity assessment tool for NZ farms
<http://www.nzdashboard.org.nz/biodiversity-assessment-tool.html>

Monday 26 February 2018

Ministry for Environment, 23 Kate Sheppard Place, Wellington

09:30-10:00	MEET & GREET OVER MORNING TEA
10:00-12:30	Welcome and introductions	Kevin Collins, Jenna Bishop (MfE)
	Why the Biodiversity Tool is important in the NZ Sustainability Dashboard	Jon Manhire (NZSD project leader)
	Co-designing a biodiversity assessment tool	Catriona MacLeod & Angela Brandt
	Telling the NZ biodiversity story: deciding what goes into the online biodiversity tool	(Manaaki Whenua – Landcare Research)
	Prioritisation exercise (Phase I) Working towards a panel consensus on what goes into the prototype biodiversity tool, guided by the prioritised lists of components resulting from the two stakeholder surveys.	Kevin Collins (Chair) Angela Brandt (Presenter)
12:30-13:00	LUNCH
13:00-14:45	Prototype tool demonstration: What do you see as the end uses for the tool?	Kevin Collins (Chair) Angela Brandt (Presenter)
	Prioritisation exercise (Phase II)
14:45-15:00	AFTERNOON TEA
15:00-16:00	Future challenges and opportunities for implementation of the tool.	Henrik Moller (NZSD science leader), Kevin Collins & Catriona MacLeod